An extra good entertainment at the Bijou theatre to-day. "His First Frock Coat" is the feature picture. It's one of the best high class comedy pictures ever produced. If he had had more head and less hat he might have come out better than he did. Two other pictures and a song complete the program. F. F. Bush, the efficient young operator who has been at the Bijou for some time, has been transferred to the Savoy theatre in Montpelier.
